Memorial Day Commemoration at Hopkinsville Veterans Cemetery

Year of Honors recognizes those interred in last 12 months

(FRANKFORT, May 22, 2008) – Please join veterans and their families in a Memorial Day ceremony to honor our veterans at the Kentucky Veterans Cemetery West in Hopkinsville

The ceremony will begin on Monday, May 26, at 11 a.m. CDT. As it has for the past four years, local Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1913 is hosting the ceremony.

The Year of Honors Remembrance commemorates the 221 veterans and dependents who have been interred at the cemetery in the past year.

The guest speaker is Christian County Judge-Executive Steve Tribble. A retired social worker and parole officer in state government, he has been Judge-Executive in Christian County for 14 years.

The Pennyrile Honor Guard will Present the Colors, and a wreath will be placed by the spouse of a recently interred veteran and VFW Post 1913 Commander John Brame.

Kentucky Veterans Cemetery West is located at 5817 Fort Campbell Boulevard.
